

Kenai Peninsula Quilting Guild

The Kenai Peninsula Quilting Guild is a non-profit organization formed to promote and encourage the art of quilt making by developing appreciation of fine quilts, sponsoring and conducting programs and services in the design and techniques of quilt making.

Meetings

The Kenai Peninsula Quilting Guild is open to anyone who is interested in quilts and quilt making. We are made up of many groups, which meet in different areas of the Kenai Peninsula. The meetings are held at various locations and times. (See meeting schedule on back) Our guild meetings are held twice yearly, on a Saturday in April and October at the Christ Lutheran Church in Soldotna.

Website kpqg.org

This site provides the latest in news and notices of our events. Enjoy the albums of our classes and events such as retreats. The newsletter is included in an online version and a printable PDF format.

Newsletter

The newsletter "Peninsula Bits & Pieces" is published quarterly for members and contains information on meetings, activities, programs, classes and membership.

Membership

If you are interested in quilting and seeking friendship and inspiration from fellow quilters, you are invited to become a member of the Kenai Peninsula Quilting Guild.

Contact the Membership Chair, Cathy Howlett, at 907-260-4634 or email: howlett@gci.net for more information on the Guild.
